PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE 2005 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

May 25, 2005

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS PROXY MATERIAL AND VOTING

Why am I receiving these materials?

We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because the Board of Directors of Gladstone Commercial Corporation (sometimes referred to as the "Company") is soliciting your proxy to vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. You are invited to attend the annual meeting to vote on the proposals described in this proxy statement. However, you do not need to attend the meeting to vote your shares. Instead, you may simply complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card.

The Company intends to mail this proxy statement and accompanying proxy card on or about April 20, 2005 to all stockholders of record entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

Who can vote at the annual meeting?

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 4, 2005 will be entitled to vote at the annual meeting. On this record date, there were 7,667,000 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

Stockholder of Record: Shares Registered in Your Name

If on April 4, 2005 your shares were registered directly in your name with Gladstone Commercial Corporation's transfer agent, The Bank of New York, then you are a stockholder of record. As a stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the meeting or vote by proxy. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, we urge you to fill out and return the enclosed proxy card to ensure your vote is counted.

Beneficial Owner: Shares Registered in the Name of a Broker or Bank

If on April 4, 2005 your shares were held, not in your name, but rather in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, dealer, or other similar organization, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered to be the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the annual meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or other agent on how to vote the shares in your account. You are also invited to attend the annual meeting. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote your shares in person at the meeting unless you request and obtain a valid proxy from your broker or other agent.

What am I voting on?

The only matter scheduled for a vote is the election of two directors to serve until the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

How do I vote?

You may either vote "For" all the nominees to the Board of Directors or you may "Withhold" your vote for any nominee you specify. The procedures for voting are fairly simple:

Stockholder of Record: Shares Registered in Your Name

If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote in person at the annual meeting or vote by proxy using the enclosed proxy card. Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, we urge you to vote by proxy to ensure your vote is counted. You may still attend the meeting and vote in person if you have already voted by proxy.

- To vote in person, come to the annual meeting and we will give you a ballot when you arrive.
- To vote using the proxy card, simply complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the envelope provided. If you return your signed proxy card to us before the annual meeting, we will vote your shares as you direct.

Beneficial Owner: Shares Registered in the Name of Broker or Bank

If you are a beneficial owner of shares registered in the name of your broker, bank, or other agent, you should have received a proxy card and voting instructions with these proxy materials from that organization rather than from Gladstone Commercial Corporation. Simply complete and mail the proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted. To vote in person at the annual meeting, you must obtain a valid proxy from your broker, bank, or other agent. Follow the instructions from your broker or bank included with these proxy materials, or contact your broker or bank to request a proxy form.

What if I return a proxy card but do not make specific choices?

If you return a signed and dated proxy card without marking any voting selections, your shares will be voted "For" the election of both nominees for director. If any other matter is properly presented at the meeting, your proxy (one of the individuals named on your proxy card) will vote your shares using his or her best judgment.

Who is paying for this proxy solicitation?

We will pay for the entire cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to these mailed proxy materials, our directors and employees and Georgeson Shareholder Communications Company ("Georgeson") may also solicit proxies in person, by telephone, or by other means of communication. Directors and employees will not be paid any additional compensation for soliciting proxies, but Georgeson will be paid its customary fee of approximately $6,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses if it solicits proxies. We may also reimburse brokerage firms, banks and other agents for the cost of forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

If you receive more than one proxy card, your shares are registered in more than one name or are registered in different accounts. Please complete, sign and return each proxy card to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Can I change my vote after submitting my proxy?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the final vote at the meeting. If you are the record holder of your shares, you may revoke your proxy in any one of three ways:

- You may submit another properly completed proxy card with a later date.
- You may send a written notice that you are revoking your proxy to Gladstone Commercial Corporation's Secretary at 1521 Westbranch Drive, Suite 200, McLean, Virginia.

- You may attend the annual meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

If your shares are held by your broker or bank as a nominee or agent, you should follow the instructions provided by your broker or bank.

When are stockholder proposals due for next year's annual meeting?

To be considered for inclusion in next year's proxy materials, your proposal must be submitted in writing by January 25, 2006, to our Secretary at the address set forth on the cover of this proxy statement. If you wish to submit a proposal that is not to be included in next year's proxy materials or nominate a director, you must do so not later than the close of business on March 26, 2006 nor earlier than the close of business on February 24, 2006. You are also advised to review our Bylaws, which contain additional requirements about advance notice of stockholder proposals and director nominations.

How are votes counted?

Votes will be counted by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately count "For" and "Withhold" and, with respect to proposals other than the election of directors, if any, "Against" votes, abstentions and broker non-votes. Abstentions will be counted towards the vote total for each proposal, and will have the same effect as "Against" votes. Broker non-votes have no effect and will not be counted towards the vote total for any proposal.

If your shares are held by your broker as your nominee (that is, in "street name"), you will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds your shares and follow the instructions included on that form regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. If you do not give instructions to your broker, your broker can vote your shares with respect to "discretionary" items, but not with respect to "non-discretionary" items. Discretionary items are proposals considered routine under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") on which your broker may vote shares held in street name in the absence of your voting instructions including the election of directors. On non-discretionary items, if any, for which you do not give your broker instructions, the shares will be treated as broker non-votes.

How many votes are needed to approve the election of directors?

Each nominee for election as a director must receive a "For" vote from the majority of shares present and entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy. Broker non-votes will have no effect.

What is the quorum requirement?

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. A quorum will be present if at least a majority of the outstanding shares are represented by stockholders present at the meeting or by proxy. On the record date, there were 7,667,000 shares outstanding and entitled to vote. Thus 3,833,501 shares must be represented by stockholders present at the meeting or by proxy to have a quorum.

Your shares will be counted towards the quorum only if you submit a valid proxy (or one is submitted on your behalf by your broker, bank or other nominee) or if you vote in person at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted towards the quorum requirement. If there is no quorum, a majority of the votes present at the meeting may adjourn the meeting to another date.

How can I find out the results of the voting at the annual meeting?

Preliminary voting results will be announced at the annual meeting. Final voting results will be published in the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2005.

PROPOSAL 1
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Gladstone Commercial Corporation's Board of Directors is divided into three classes. Each class consists, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors, and each class has a three-year term. Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled only by persons elected by a majority of the remaining directors. A director elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy in a class shall serve for the remainder of the full term of that class, and until the director's successor is elected and qualified. This includes vacancies created by an increase in the number of directors.

The Board of Directors presently has eight members. There are two directors in the class whose term of office expires in 2005. Each of the nominees listed below was recommended to the Board of Directors by the Company's CEO to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors in August 2003 immediately prior to the Company's initial public offering, and is standing for election by the stockholders for the first time. If elected at the annual meeting, each of these nominees would serve until the 2008 annual meeting and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified, or until the director's death, resignation or removal. It is the Company's policy to encourage directors and nominees for director to attend the Annual Meeting. Two of the Company's directors attended the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Independence Of The Board Of Directors

As required under the Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq") listing standards, a majority of the members of a listed company's Board of Directors must qualify as "independent," as affirmatively determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors consults with the Company's counsel to ensure that the determinations of the Board of Directors are consistent with all relevant securities and other laws and regulations regarding the definition of "independent," including those set forth in pertinent listing standards of the Nasdaq, as in effect time to time.

Consistent with these considerations, after review of all relevant transactions or relationships between each director, or any of his or her family members, and the Company, its senior management and its independent registered public accounting firm, the Board of Directors affirmatively has determined that all of the Company's directors are independent directors within the meaning of the applicable Nasdaq listing standards except for Mr. Gladstone, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Mr. Brubaker, the President, Chief Operating Officer and Secretary of the Company.

Information Regarding The Board Of Directors And Its Committees

As required under applicable Nasdaq listing standards, in fiscal 2004 the Company's independent directors met one time in a regularly scheduled executive session at which only independent directors were present. Persons interested in communicating with the independent directors with their concerns or issues may address correspondence to a particular director, or to the independent directors generally, in care of Gladstone Commercial Corporation at 1521 Westbranch Drive, Suite 200, McLean, Virginia 22102. * Committee Chairperson

Below is a description of each committee of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of each committee meets the applicable rules and regulations regarding “independence” and that each member is free of any relationship that would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment with regard to the Company (other than with respect to the Executive Committee, for which there are no applicable independence requirements).

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee, which is comprised of Messrs. Gladstone (Chairman), Brubaker and Parker, has the authority to exercise all powers of the Company’s Board of Directors except for actions that must be taken by the full Board of Directors under Maryland General Corporation Law. The Executive Committee did not meet during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors oversees the Company’s corporate accounting and financial reporting process. For this purpose, the Audit Committee performs several functions. The Audit Committee evaluates the performance of and assesses the qualifications of the independent registered public accounting firms; determines and approves the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firms; determines whether to retain or terminate the existing independent registered public accounting firm or to appoint and engage a new independent registered public accounting firm; reviews and approves the retention of the independent registered public accounting firm to perform any proposed permissible non-audit services; monitors the rotation of partners of the independent registered public accounting firm on the Company’s audit engagement team as required by law; confers with management and the independent registered public accounting firm regarding the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting; establishes procedures, as required under applicable law, for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters; and meets to review the company’s annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm, including reviewing the Company’s disclosures under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.” Three directors comprise the Audit Committee: Messrs. Parker (Chairman) and Dullum and Ms. English. The Audit Committee met eight times during the fiscal year.

The Board of Directors annually reviews the Nasdaq listing standards definition of independence for Audit Committee members and has determined that all members of the Company's Audit Committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in Rule 4350(d)(2)(A)(i) and (ii) of the Nasdaq listing standards). The Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Parker and Dullum and Ms. English qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert," as defined in applicable SEC rules.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors reviews and approves the overall compensation strategy and policies for the Company. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves corporate performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other senior management, negotiates the terms of the Company's advisory agreement with Gladstone Management Corporation (the "Adviser"), recommends to the Board for approval the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer; recommends to the Board for approval the compensation and other terms of employment of the other executive officers; and administers the Company's 2003 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended, the "2003 Plan"). Three directors comprise the Compensation Committee: Messrs. Dullum (Chairman), Parker and Outland. All members of the Company's Compensation Committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq listing standards). The Compensation Committee met eight times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for identifying, reviewing and evaluating candidates to serve as directors of the Company (consistent with criteria approved by the Board), reviewing and evaluating incumbent directors, recommending to the Board for selection candidates for election to the Board of Directors, making recommendations to the Board regarding the membership of the committees of the Board, assessing the performance of the Board, and developing a set of corporate governance principles for the Company. The Company's Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter can be found on the Company's corporate website at www.GladstoneCommercial.com. Two directors comprise the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee: Messrs. Adelgren (Chairman) and Coulon. All members of the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Nasdaq listing standards). The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met eight times during the fiscal year.

The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee believes that candidates for director should have certain minimum qualifications, including being able to read and understand basic financial statements, being over 21 years of age and having the highest personal integrity and ethics. The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also intends to consider such factors as possessing relevant expertise upon which to be able to offer advice and guidance to management, having sufficient time to devote to the affairs of the Company, demonstrated excellence in his or her field, having the ability to exercise sound business judgment and having the commitment to rigorously represent the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders. However, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee retains the right to modify these qualifications from time to time. Candidates for director nominees are reviewed in the context of the current composition of the Board, the operating requirements of the Company and the long-term interests of stockholders. In conducting this assessment, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers diversity, age, skills, and such other factors as it deems appropriate given the current needs of the Board and the Company, to maintain a balance of knowledge, experience and capability. In the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews such directors' overall service to the Company during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, quality of performance, and any other relationships and transactions that might impair such directors' independence. In the case of new director candidates, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also determines whether the nominee must be independent for Nasdaq purposes, which determination is based upon applicable Nasdaq listing standards, applicable SEC rules and regulations and the advice of counsel, if necessary. The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee then uses its network of contacts to compile a list of potential candidates, but may also engage, if it deems appropriate, a professional search firm. The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee conducts any appropriate and necessary inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates after considering the function and needs of the Board. The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee meets to discuss and consider such candidates' qualifications and then selects a nominee for recommendation to the Board by majority vote. To date, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not paid a fee to any third party to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating director candidates. To date, the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has not rejected a timely director nominee from a stockholder or stockholders holding more than 5% of the Company's voting stock.

The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director candidates recommended by stockholders. The Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee does not intend to alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates, including the minimum criteria set forth above, based on whether the candidate was recommended by a stockholder or not. Stockholders who wish to recommend individuals for consideration by the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to become nominees for election to the Board may do so by delivering a written recommendation to the Ethics, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee at the address set forth on the cover page of this proxy statement. Recommendations for individuals to be considered nomination at the 2006 Annual Meeting must be received by September 30, 2005. Recommendations received after September 30, 2005 will be considered for nomination at the 2007 annual meeting. Submissions must include the full name of the proposed nominee, a description of the proposed nominee's business experience for at least the previous five years, complete biographical information, a description of the proposed nominee's qualifications as a director and a representation that the nominating stockholder is a beneficial or record owner of the Company's stock. Any such submission must be accompanied by the written consent of the proposed nominee to be named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected.

Meetings Of The Board Of Directors

The Board of Directors met eight times during the last fiscal year. Each director attended 75% or more of the aggregate of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which he or she served, held during the period for which he or she was a director or committee member.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors consists of the three non-employee directors named below. Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director as defined by the current and proposed Nasdaq listing standards and the Company's own standards. In addition, the Board of Directors has unanimously determined that all members of the Audit Committee qualify as "audit committee financial experts" within the meaning of the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. The Board of Directors has unanimously determined that all Audit Committee members are financially literate under current Nasdaq listing standards and at least one member has financial management expertise. The Audit Committee is primarily responsible for oversight of the Company's financial statements and controls, assessing and ensuring the independence, qualifications and performance of the independent registered public accounting firm, approving the independent registered public accounting firm services and fees and reviewing and approving the annual audited financial statements for the Company before issuance, subject to Board of Directors approval. No members of the Audit Committee received any compensation from the Company during the last fiscal year other than directors' fees.

Committee Report

The following is the report of the Audit Committee with respect to the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present. The Audit Committee included in its review results of the independent registered public accounting firm's examinations, the Company's internal controls, and the quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Audit Committee also reviewed the Company's procedures and internal control processes designed to ensure full, fair and adequate financial reporting and disclosures, including procedures for certifications by the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer that are required in periodic reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee is satisfied that the Company's internal control system is adequate and that the Company employs appropriate accounting and auditing procedures.

The Audit Committee also has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP matters relating to the independent registered public accounting firm's judgments about the quality, as well as the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting as required by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers their independence from management and the Company, as well as the matters in the written disclosures received from PricewaterhouseCoopers and required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee received a letter from PricewaterhouseCoopers confirming their independence and discussed it with them. The Audit Committee discussed and reviewed with PricewaterhouseCoopers the Company's critical accounting policies and practices, internal controls, other material written communications to management, and the scope of PricewaterhouseCoopers' audits and all fees paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers during the fiscal year. The Audit Committee adopted guidelines requiring review and pre-approval by the Audit Committee of audit and non-audit services performed by PricewaterhouseCoopers for the Company. The Audit Committee has reviewed and considered the compatibility of PricewaterhouseCoopers' performance of non-audit services with the maintenance of PricewaterhouseCoopers' independence as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

Based on the Audit Committee's review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, the Audit Committee has engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005.

Relationship with Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The audit committee of the Board of Directors has selected PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP ("PWC") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements for fiscal year 2005. Representatives of PWC are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. PWC is the largest registered public accounting firm in the world. Given PWC's experience and presence in the accounting profession, the Company's audit committee (composed entirely of independent directors) and the Company's full Board of Directors determined that it was not necessary to submit the selection of PWC as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm to the stockholders for ratification. If the Board of Directors or the audit committee has any significant question as to PWC's ability to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the audit committee would either seek to engage another accounting firm or, if the committee nevertheless elects to retain PWC as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, the Board of Directors would seek ratification of the selection of PWC by the Company's stockholders.

Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm's Fees

The following table represents aggregate fees billed to the Company for the period from its inception through December 31, 2003 and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

	2004	2003
Audit Fees	$ 280,000	$ 111,700
Audit-related Fees	22,500	0
Tax Fees	19,214	5,600
All Other Fees	0	0
	$ 321,714	$ 117,300

All fees described above were approved by the Audit Committee.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy and procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services rendered by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. The policy generally pre-approves specified services in the defined categories of audit services, audit-related services, and tax services up to specified amounts. Pre-approval may also be given as part of the Audit Committee's approval of the scope of the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm or on an individual explicit case-by-case basis before the independent registered public accounting firm is engaged to provide each service. The pre-approval of services may be delegated to one or more of the Audit Committee's members, but the decision must be reported to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

The Audit Committee has determined that the rendering of the services other than audit services by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is compatible with maintaining the independent registered public accounting firm's independence.

Section 16(A) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "1934 Act") requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with.

Compensation of Directors

As compensation for serving on the Company's Board of Directors, each of the Company's independent directors will receive an annual fee of $10,000 and an additional $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended, and an additional $1,000 for each committee meeting attended if such committee meeting takes place on a day other than when the full Board of Directors meets. In addition, the Company reimburses its directors for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending Board of Directors and committee meetings. Upon joining the Board of Directors, each independent director receives a non-qualified option to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock having an exercise price equal to the quoted price of the Company's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the date of grant. At the time of each Annual Meeting of the Company's stockholders following his or her appointment, each incumbent independent director will receive an additional non-qualified option to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant. All options granted to independent directors will vest in two equal annual installments beginning one year from the date of grant.

The Company does not pay any compensation to directors who also serve as its officers, or as officers or directors of the Adviser, in consideration for their service as directors of the Company. The Company's Board of Directors may change the compensation of independent directors in its discretion. None of the Company's independent directors received any compensation from the Company during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 other than for Board of Directors or committee service.

Under the terms of an advisory agreement with the Adviser, the Company reimburses the Adviser for the Company's pro rata share of the Adviser's payroll and benefits expenses on an employee-by-employee basis, based on the percentage of each employee's time devoted to the Company's matters. #### Stock Option Grants And Exercises

The Company grants options to its executive officers under the 2003 Plan. The Company adopted the 2003 Plan on June 10, 2003 for the purpose of attracting and retaining the services of executive officers, directors and other key employees. As of April 4, 2005, options to purchase a total of 865,000 shares were outstanding under the 2003 Plan and options to purchase 70,000 shares remained available for grant under the 2003 Plan.

Under the 2003 Plan, the Compensation Committee may award to employees, including those of the Adviser, incentive stock options within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, or ISOs, and nonstatutory stock options to employees, non-employee directors and certain consultants, including the Adviser and its affiliates. In addition, the 2003 Plan permits the granting of restricted stock.

Options granted under the 2003 Plan may be exercised for a period of no more than ten years from the date of grant or, in the case of ISOs granted to any recipient who owns, or is treated as owning, under Section 424(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 10% of the total combined voting power of the Company's stock, no more than five years from the date of grant. No awards may be granted under the 2003 Plan to any person who, assuming exercise or settlement of all options and rights held by such person, would own or be deemed to own more than 9.8% of the outstanding shares of the Company's capital stock without approval of the Board of Directors. Unless sooner terminated by the Board of Directors, the 2003 Plan will terminate on June 9, 2013, and no additional awards may be made under the 2003 Plan after that date.

Options granted under the 2003 Plan will entitle the optionee, upon exercise, to purchase shares of common stock from the Company at a specified exercise price per share. ISOs must have a per share exercise price of no less than the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of the grant or, if the optionee owns or is treated as owning, under Section 424(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of the Company's stock, no less than 110% of the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of the grant. Nonstatutory stock options granted under the 2003 Plan must have a per share exercise price of no less than 85% of the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of the grant. Options will not be transferable other than by laws of descent, distribution and, in the case of nonstatutory stock options, assignment or grant to a trust, individual retirement account or pension plan that is for the benefit of the optionee.

The Compensation Committee administers the 2003 Plan and has the authority, subject to the provisions of the 2003 Plan, to determine who will receive awards under the 2003 Plan and the terms of such awards. The Compensation Committee has the authority to adjust the number of shares available for options, the number of shares subject to outstanding options and the exercise price for options following the occurrence of events such as stock splits, cash or stock dividends, distributions and recapitalizations.

If authorized by the Compensation Committee, the exercise price of an option may be paid in the form of shares of common stock that are already owned by a participant. In addition, the Compensation Committee may permit, when appropriate, a "cashless exercise" arrangement whereby an optionee may exercise a portion of his or her option by surrendering a portion of the shares subject to his or her option having a fair value equal to the aggregate exercise price of the portion of the option being exercised. If an optionee elects to make a cashless exercise of a portion of his or her option, he or she will receive upon such exercise shares having an aggregate fair market value equal to the product of (1) the excess of the fair market value of a share of common stock on the exercise date over the exercise price and (2) the number of shares covered by the portion of the option being exercised. The 2003 Plan provides that if a stock option is not exercised and the option expires for any reason, then the shares of common stock subject to the option will be available for reissuance under the 2003 Plan.

Participants in the 2003 Plan are eligible to receive grants of restricted stock. These shares may be subject to a time-based vesting schedule or the attainment of performance goals established by the Compensation Committee. Restricted stock may be sold or may be issued for no cash consideration as determined by the Compensation Committee. Upon a participant's termination of service with the Company, the Company may have the option to repurchase or reclaim the unvested shares of stock at the original purchase price paid by a participant for such shares, if any. The specific terms and conditions of the restricted stock purchases shall be governed by the 2003 Plan and individual agreements in a form approved by the Compensation Committee. Restricted stock acquired under the 2003 Plan is transferable if so determined by the Compensation Committee in its discretion. As of April 4, 2005, the Company has not issued any shares of restricted stock.

Upon specified corporate transactions, as defined in the 2003 Plan, all outstanding stock options and restricted stock under the 2003 Plan may either be assumed or new awards may be substituted by the successor or surviving entity. If the surviving entity does not assume or substitute similar awards, the vesting of awards held by the participants whose continuous service has not terminated prior to the closing date of the corporate transaction will be accelerated in full and then terminated to the extent not exercised, if appropriate, prior to the closing date of the corporate transaction. With respect to any other awards which are not assumed or substituted and which are held by participants whose continuous service has terminated on or prior to the closing date of the corporate transaction, such awards will not be accelerated unless otherwise provided in a written agreement between the Company and the participant and approved by the Compensation Committee.

Upon a corporate transaction that constitutes a change in control, as defined in the 2003 Plan, awards of stock options and restricted stock held by participants whose continuous service has not terminated prior to the date of the change in control will be entitled to additional acceleration of vesting, but only to the extent as provided in any written agreement between the Company and the participant and approved by the Compensation Committee.

The following tables show for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, certain information regarding options granted to, exercised by, and held at year end by, the Named Executive Officers:

OPTION GRANTS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

Name	Individual Grants		Exercise Or Base Price ($/Sh)	Expiration Date	Potential Realizable Value at Assumed Annual Rates of Stock Price Appreciation for Option Term(1)
	Number of Securities Underlying Options Granted (#)	% of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year			5% ($)	10% ($)
Mr. Gladstone	0	0	n/a	n/a	n/a	n/a
Mr. Brubaker	30,000	11.1%	$ 16.10	6/8/2014	$ 303,756	$ 769,778
Mr. Stelljes	30,000	11.1%	$ 16.10	6/8/2014	$ 303,756	$ 769,778
Mr. Brill	10,000	3.7%	$ 16.10	6/8/2014	$ 101,252	$ 256,593

- (1) The potential realizable value is based on the term of the option at the time of its grant (10 years). It is calculated by assuming that the stock price on the date of the grant appreciates at the indicated annual rate, compounded annually for the entire term of the option and that the option is exercised and the underlying shares sold on the last day of its term for the appreciated stock price. The amounts represent certain assumed rates of appreciation only, in accordance with the rules of the SEC, and do not reflect the Company's estimate or projection of future stock price performance. Actual gains, if any, are dependent on the actual future performance of the Company's common stock and no gain to the optionee is possible unless the stock price appreciates over the option term, which will benefit all stockholders.

AGGREGATED OPTION EXERCISES IN LAST FISCAL YEAR AND YEAR-END OPTION VALUES

Name	Shares Acquired on Exercise (#)	Value Realized $(1)	Number of Securities Underlying Unexercised Options/ SARs at FY-End (#) Exercisable/ Unexercisable	Value of Unexercised In-the-Money Options/ SARs at FY-End ($) Exercisable/ Unexercisable(2)

Mr. Brill	0	n/a	25,000/10,000	$52,500/$10,000

- (1) Value realized is calculated as the closing market price on the date of exercise, net of option exercise price, but before any tax liabilities or transaction costs.
- (2) The value of unexercised options is calculated as the closing market price on December 31, 2004 less the exercise price. "In-the-money" options are those with an exercise price that is less than the closing market price on December 31, 2004.

Employment Agreements

Because the Company's executive officers are employees of the Adviser, the Company does not pay cash compensation to them directly in return for their services to the Company. However, the Company's executive officers and other officers, employees and personnel of the Adviser who spend time on matters related to the Company continue to be eligible to receive awards under the 2003 Plan. Pursuant to the terms of an advisory agreement between the Company and the Adviser, the Company reimburses the Adviser for the Company's pro rata share of the Adviser's employee payroll and benefits expenses on an employee-by-employee basis, based on the percentage of each employee's time devoted to the Company's matters. For additional information regarding this arrangement, see "Advisory Agreement" under "Certain Transactions."

Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes have entered into employment agreements with the Adviser as senior executive officers of the Adviser. Summarized below are certain material terms of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes' current employment agreements.

Each of the employment agreements of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes provides for a term through April 22, 2007 that will be extended for successive periods of one year unless the Adviser gives the senior executive officer three months' prior written notice of its intention to terminate the agreement without cause. Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes each have the right to terminate their respective employment agreement at any time by giving the Adviser three months' prior written notice.

The employment agreements of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes provide for a base salary of $200,000. The Adviser's Board of Directors has the right to increase their base salaries and also, generally, to decrease them, but not below $200,000. Currently, the base salary of Mr. Gladstone is $200,000, and the base salaries of Messrs. Brubaker and Stelljes have been set at $235,000. The employment agreements provide that each of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes is entitled to receive a cash bonus of up to 100% of his base salary based upon a determination by the Adviser's Board of Directors. Each of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker and Stelljes is also entitled to participate in the 2003 Plan. However, Mr. Gladstone has voluntarily agreed not to accept any additional options from the Company.

If the Adviser should terminate the employment of Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker or Stelljes each would be subject to certain non-compete covenants. These covenants would generally apply for one year. During periods when Messrs. Gladstone, Brubaker or Stelljes are entitled to receive severance payments from the Adviser, they may terminate these covenants prohibiting competition by forgoing such severance payments.

Each of the employment agreements also provides that the officer will maintain the confidentiality of the Company's confidential information during and after the period of his employment.

Pursuant to the terms of the advisory agreement between the Company and the Adviser, the Company's Board of Directors has the exclusive right to: (i) grant stock compensation to the senior executive officers;

(ii) hire, fire and control the activities of the senior executive officers in connection with and to the extent of their services to the Company; (iii) determine the economic value of the services performed by the senior executive officers to the Company; and (iv) remit funds to cover the complete compensation of the senior executive officers providing services to the Company.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION<sup>2</sup>

The Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is responsible for the oversight of the Company’s executive compensation program. In this regard, the role of the Committee is to assess all components of the total compensation of the Company’s executives to ensure that total compensation reflects the Company’s key strategic priorities of attracting, retaining and rewarding executives who effectively work to achieve the Company’s business and investment objectives. The Committee’s charter reflects this responsibility, and the Committee and the Board of Directors periodically review and revise the charter. The Committee’s membership is determined by the Board of Directors and is composed entirely of independent directors. The Committee meets at scheduled times during the year, and it may also consider and take action by written consent. The Committee Chairman reports on Committee actions and recommendations at meetings of the Board of Directors. Although it has not done so to date, the Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside advisers, experts and others to assist in fulfilling its responsibilities. The current total compensation plan for the Company’s executive officers consists of the following elements:

- Base salary paid to executive officers by the Adviser;
- Bonuses paid to executive officers by the Adviser; and
- Long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options granted by the Company under the 2003 Plan.

The Company’s executive officers are salaried employees of the Adviser. Pursuant to the terms of the advisory agreement between the Company and the Adviser, the Company reimburses the Adviser for its pro rata share of the Adviser’s payroll and benefits expenses on an employee-by-employee basis, based on the percentage of time that its personnel spend on the Company’s matters. The Committee fulfills its responsibility to assess the base salary and bonus components of compensation paid to executive officers by periodically reviewing and approving those portions of the salaries and bonuses paid by the Adviser to the Company’s executive officers that are borne by the Company.

In addition, the Committee administers the 2003 Plan through which the Company’s executive officers may receive stock option grants.

Compensation Philosophy

The Company depends on the management and analytical abilities of the Company’s executive officers for the Company’s long-term success and for the enhancement of the Company’s long-term stockholder value. Because of this dependence, the Committee has a critical oversight role in ensuring that the Company’s compensation, whether paid pursuant to the Company’s advisory agreement, through awards under the 2003 Plan, or otherwise enables the Company and the Adviser to attract, retain and reward the performance of executive officers and employees whose substantial experience in investing and lending will enable the Company to achieve its business and investment objectives. The Company fulfills this role by:

- ensuring that base salary paid to the Company’s executive officers, a portion of which the Company bears through reimbursement of the Adviser pursuant to the advisory agreement, is competitive with other leading financial services companies with which the Company competes for talented investment professionals;

<sup>2</sup> The material in this report is not “soliciting material,” is not deemed “filed” with the SEC, and is not to be incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company under the 1933 Act or 1934 Act, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language contained in such filing.

- ensuring that bonuses paid to the Company's executive officers, a portion of which the Company bears through reimbursement of the Adviser pursuant to the advisory agreement, are sufficient to provide motivation to achieve the Company's principal business and investment goals and to bring total compensation to competitive levels; and
- providing significant equity-based incentives to ensure that the Company's executive officers are motivated over the long term to achieve the Company's business and investment objectives.

Base Salary and Bonuses

Through its periodic review and approval of the Company's advisory agreement, the Committee approves the portions of the salaries and bonuses of the Company's executive officers that are borne by the Company through the reimbursement of payroll and benefits expenses to the Adviser under the advisory agreement. The Committee's reviews are conducted on at least an annual basis and with sufficient frequency to determine that the expenses incurred are in the best interests of the Company's stockholders. The Committee is also responsible for reviewing the performance of the Adviser and determining whether the compensation paid to the Company's executive officers is reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of services performed and whether the provisions of the advisory agreement are being satisfactorily performed. Specifically, the Committee considers factors such as:

- the pay practices of the Adviser in relation to those of leading financial services companies with which the Adviser competes to attract and retain talented investment professionals;
- the amount of the fees paid to the Adviser in relation to the Company's size and the composition and performance of the Company's investments;
- the Adviser's ability to hire, train, supervise and manage new employees as needed to effectively manage the Company's future growth;
- the success of the Adviser in generating appropriate investment opportunities;
- rates charged to other investment entities by advisers performing similar services;
- additional revenues realized by the Adviser and its affiliates through their relationship with the Company, whether paid by the Company or by others with whom the Company does business;
- the value of the Company's assets each quarter;
- the quality and extent of service and advice furnished by the Adviser and the performance of the Company's investment portfolio;
- the quality of the Company's portfolio relative to the investments generated by the Adviser for its other clients; and
- the extent to which bonus expenses under the advisory agreement reflect the Adviser's achievement of the Company's principal business and investment objectives of generating income for the Company's stockholders in the form of quarterly cash distributions that grow over time and increasing the value of the Company's common stock.

Long-Term Incentives

Long-term incentive compensation is realized through the grant of stock options under the Company's 2003 Plan. Awards under the 2003 Plan are generally subject to time-based vesting to encourage the Company's executive officers to continue their services to the Company. Grants are made at 100% of fair market value on the date of grant.

Stock options require price appreciation of the Company's common stock over the term of the options in order for executive officers to receive any value, thus directly aligning the interests of our executive officers with the interests of our stockholders. The size of option grants to the Company's executive officers is determined based on competitive practices at leading companies in the finance industry and the Company's philosophy of significantly linking executive compensation with stockholder interests. In determining the size of the grants, the Committee also considers the Company's philosophy that option grants give our executive officers significant equity incentives to build long-term stockholder value.

In 2004 the Committee granted a total of 280,000 stock options, of which 12,000 options granted to our employees were subsequently forfeited upon termination of employment, that will vest over a one-year period. Of this total, no options were granted to David Gladstone, 30,000 options were granted to Terry Lee Brubaker, 30,000 options were granted to George Stelljes III, 10,000 options were granted to Harry Brill, and 210,000 options were granted to other participants under the 2003 Plan. Such grants were intended to provide the incentive to successfully maximize stockholder value over the next several years. The Committee believes this approach creates an appropriate focus on longer term objectives and promotes retention of the Company's executive officers.

Personal Benefits Policies

Our executive officers are not entitled to operate under different standards than other employees of the Adviser who work on our behalf. The Adviser does not have programs for providing personal benefit perquisites to executive officers, such as permanent lodging, personal use of company vehicles, or defraying the cost of personal entertainment or family travel. The Adviser's health care and other insurance programs are the same for all of its eligible employees, including our executive officers. We expect our executive officers to be exemplars under our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which are applicable to all employees of the Adviser who work on our behalf.

Corporate Performance and Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The amount of Mr. Gladstone's base salary for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 that was paid in respect of services rendered to the Company through the Adviser was $88,833. Mr. Gladstone declined to accept any bonus for the year and insisted that his bonus be allocated to the other employees of the Adviser. In approving the reimbursement of the Company's portion of Mr. Gladstone's salary under the advisory agreement, the Committee took into account (i) the percentage of time that Mr. Gladstone devoted to the Company's matters; (ii) revenue growth; (iii) increase in earnings per share; (iv) Mr. Gladstone's leadership in future growth initiatives; and (v) Mr. Gladstone's insistence that his bonus be allocated to the other employees.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the Company achieved most of the Company's corporate objectives. The Committee rated Mr. Gladstone's individual performance as above average.

Conclusion

We believe that the elements of our compensation program individually and in the aggregate strongly support and reflect the strategic priorities on which we have based our compensation philosophy. A significant portion of the Company's executive compensation program, and Mr. Gladstone's compensation, specifically, are contingent on the extent to which the performance of the Company and the Adviser result in the realization of the Company's business and investment objectives, which realization is closely linked to increases in long-term stockholder value. The Company remains committed to this philosophy of paying for performance that increases stockholder value. The Committee will continue its work to ensure that this commitment is reflected in a total executive compensation program that enables the Company to remain competitive in the market for talented executives, recognizing that the volatility of the Company's business may result in highly variable compensation in future time periods.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Advisory Agreement

The Company has entered into an advisory agreement with the Adviser, pursuant to which the Adviser is responsible for managing the Company's business on a day-to-day basis and for identifying, evaluating, negotiating and consummating investment transactions consistent with the Company's investment criteria. In return for providing such services, the Company reimburses the Adviser for certain expenses it incurs related to management of the Company's activities. David Gladstone, Terry Lee Brubaker, George Stelljes III and <sup>3</sup> This Section is not "soliciting material," is not deemed "filed" with the SEC, and is not to be incorporated by reference in any filing of the Company under the 1933 Act or the 1934 Act, whether made before or after the date hereof and irrespective of any general incorporation language contained in any such filing.

Harry Brill are all officers and directors of the Adviser, and David Gladstone is the controlling stockholder of the Adviser. Although the Company believes that the terms of the advisory agreement are no less favorable to the Company than those that could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party in an arms'-length transaction, the Adviser, its officers and its directors have a material interest in the terms of the advisory agreement and in the reimbursements described in further detail below.

Many of the services performed by the Adviser and its affiliates in managing the Company's day-to-day activities are summarized below. This summary is provided to illustrate the material functions which the Adviser and its affiliates perform pursuant to the terms of the advisory agreement, but it is not intended to include all of the services which may be provided to the Company by third parties.

Adviser Duties and Authority Under the Advisory Agreement

Under the terms of the advisory agreement, the Adviser is required to use its best efforts to present the Company with investment opportunities consistent with its investment policies and objectives as adopted by the Company's Board of Directors. In performing its duties, the Adviser, either directly or indirectly by engaging an affiliate:

- finds, evaluates, presents and recommends real estate investment opportunities consistent with the Company's investment policies and objectives;
- provides advice to the Company and acts on its behalf with respect to the negotiation, acquisition, financing, refinancing, holding, leasing and disposition of real estate investments;
- enters contracts to purchase real estate and make mortgage loans on behalf of the Company in compliance with its investment procedures, objectives and policies, subject to approval of the Company's Board of Directors, where required;
- takes the actions and obtains the services necessary to effect the negotiation, acquisition, financing, refinancing, holding, leasing and disposition of real estate investments; and
- provides day-to-day management of the Company's business activities and other administrative services as requested by the Company's Board of Directors.

Each investment that the Company makes is approved or ratified by the Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors has authorized the Adviser to make investments in any property on behalf of the Company without the prior approval of the Board of Directors if the following conditions are satisfied:

- The Adviser has obtained an independent appraisal for the property indicating that the total cost of the property does not exceed its appraised value; and
- The Adviser has provided us with a representation that the property, in conjunction with the Company's other investments and proposed investments, is reasonably expected to fulfill the Company's investment objectives and policies as established by the Board of Directors and then in effect.

The actual terms and conditions of transactions involving investments in properties and mortgage loans are determined in the sole discretion of the Adviser, subject at all times to compliance with the foregoing requirements. Some types of transactions, however, require the prior approval of the Board of Directors, including a majority of independent directors, including the following:

- loans not secured or otherwise supported by real property;
- any acquisition or mortgage loan which at the time of investment would have a cost exceeding 20% of the Company's total assets;
- any lease or mortgage loan to a tenant or borrower having a risk rating of less than 4 on the Company's risk rating scale;
- transactions that involve conflicts of interest with the Adviser (other than reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the advisory agreement); and

- the lease of assets to the Adviser, its affiliates or any of the Company's officers or directors.

In addition to its duties under the advisory agreement, the Adviser and its affiliates engage in other business ventures and, as a result, their resources are not dedicated exclusively to the Company's business. For example, the Adviser also serves as external adviser to Gladstone Capital Corporation, a publicly traded business development company affiliated with the Company, and Gladstone Land Corporation, a privately held company affiliated with David Gladstone, the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. However, under the advisory agreement, the Adviser must devote sufficient resources to the administration of the Company's affairs to discharge its obligations under the agreement. The advisory agreement is not assignable or transferable by either the Company or the Adviser without the consent of the other party, except that the Adviser may assign the advisory agreement to an affiliate for whom the Adviser agrees to guarantee its obligations to the Company. Either the Company or the Adviser may assign or transfer the advisory agreement to a successor entity.

Termination of the Advisory Agreement

The term of the advisory agreement ends on December 31, 2006, and thereafter will be automatically renewed for successive one-year periods, unless either the Company or the Adviser gives the other party notice of non-renewal at least 120 days before the end of any term. Additionally, the advisory agreement may be terminated:

- immediately by the Company for "cause" or upon the bankruptcy of the Adviser;
- without cause by a majority of the Company's independent directors upon 60 days' notice to the Adviser; or
- immediately with "good reason" by the Adviser.

"Cause" is defined in the advisory agreement to mean fraud, criminal conduct, willful misconduct or willful or negligent breach of fiduciary duty, or the commission of a material breach of the advisory agreement, by the Adviser. "Good reason" is defined in the advisory agreement to mean either a failure to obtain a satisfactory agreement from any successor to the Company to assume and agree to perform the Company's obligations under the advisory agreement, or a material breach of the advisory agreement of any nature whatsoever by us.

Payments to the Adviser Under the Advisory Agreement

The following sets forth the type and amounts payable to the Adviser in connection with its operation of the Company's business. While the Company believes that these payments are no less favorable than it could have obtained from negotiating with an unaffiliated third party at arm's-length, these payments have not been determined through arm's-length bargaining.

Under the terms of the advisory agreement, the Company is responsible for all expenses incurred for its direct benefit. Examples of these expenses include expenses incurred in connection with the Company's organization and initial public offering, legal, accounting, tax preparation, consulting, recruiting, stockholder related costs, and related fees. In the event that any of these expenses are incurred on the Company's behalf by the Adviser, the Company is required to reimburse the Adviser on a dollar-for-dollar basis for all such amounts. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the total amount of these expenses that the Company incurred was approximately $1,142,000.

In addition, the Company is also responsible for all fees charged by third parties that are directly related to its business, which may include real estate brokerage fees, mortgage placement fees, lease-up fees and transaction structuring fees (although the Company may be able to pass some or all of such fees on to tenants and borrowers). In the event that any of these expenses are incurred on the Company's behalf by the Adviser, the Company will be required to reimburse the Adviser on a dollar-for-dollar basis for all such amounts. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company passed all such fees along to its tenants, and accordingly did not incur any such fees during this period. Accordingly, no reimbursements were made to the Adviser for these amounts.

The Company is also required to reimburse the Adviser for its pro rata share of the Adviser's payroll and benefits expenses on an employee-by-employee basis, based on the percentage of each employee's time devoted to its matters. During the year ended December 31, 2004, these expenses were approximately $903,000.

The Company may also be required to reimburse the Adviser for its pro rata portion of all other expenses of the Adviser not reimbursed under the arrangements described above ("overhead expenses"), equal to the total overhead expenses of the Adviser, multiplied by the ratio of hours worked by the Adviser's employees on the Company's projects to the total hours worked by the Adviser's employees. However, the Company will only be required to reimburse the Adviser for its portion of the Adviser's overhead expenses if the amount of payroll and benefits reimbursed to the Adviser is less than 2.0% of the Company's average invested assets for the year. Additionally, the Company will only be required to reimburse the Adviser for overhead expenses up to the point that reimbursed overhead expenses and payroll and benefits expenses, on a combined basis, equal 2.0% of the Company's average invested assets for the year. The Adviser will bill the Company on a monthly basis for these amounts. The Adviser must reimburse the Company annually for the amount by which amounts billed to and paid by the Company exceed this 2.0% limit during a given year. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the amount of overhead expenses reimbursed to the Adviser was approximately $285,000.

In addition to the reimbursement of expenses described above, the Adviser's officers, directors and employees are eligible to receive stock option grants from the 2003 Plan.

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing the fees and expenses under the advisory agreement on at least an annual basis and with sufficient frequency to determine that the expenses incurred are in the best interests of the Company's stockholders. The Company's independent directors are also responsible for reviewing the performance of the Adviser and determining whether the compensation paid to the Adviser is reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of services performed and whether the provisions of the advisory agreement are being satisfactorily performed. Specifically, the Company's independent directors consider factors such as:

- the amount of the fees paid to the Adviser in relation to the Company's size and the composition and performance of its investments;
- the success of the Adviser in generating appropriate investment opportunities;
- rates charged to other investment entities by advisers performing similar services;
- additional revenues realized by the Adviser and its affiliates through their relationship with the Company, whether paid by the Company or by others with whom it does business;
- the value of the Company's assets each quarter;
- the quality and extent of service and advice furnished by the Adviser and the performance of the Company's investment portfolio; and
- the quality of the Company's portfolio relative to the investments generated by the Adviser for its other clients.

Other Transactions with the Adviser and its Affiliates

From time to time the Company may enter into transactions with the Adviser or one or more of its affiliates. A majority of the Company's independent directors and a majority of the Company's directors not otherwise interested in a transaction with the Adviser must approve all such transactions with the Adviser or its affiliates.

It is the Company's current policy that it will not purchase any property from or co-invest with the Adviser, any of its affiliates or any business in which the Adviser or any of its affiliates have invested except that the Company can make leases to existing and prospective portfolio companies of entities advised by the Adviser so long as the portfolio company is not controlled by that entity, and that if the Company decides to change this policy on co-investments with the Adviser or its affiliates, it will seek approval of this decision from the stockholders.

Indemnification

In its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Company has agreed to indemnify certain officers and directors by providing, among other things, that the Company will indemnify such officer or director, under the circumstances and to the extent provided for therein, for expenses, damages, judgments, fines and settlements he or she may be required to pay in actions or proceedings which he or she is or may be made a party by reason of his or her position as a director, officer or other agent of the Company, and otherwise to the fullest extent permitted under Maryland law and the Company's Bylaws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnification provisions shall not protect any officer or director from liability to the Company or its stockholders as a result of any action that would constitute willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of such officer's or director's duties, or reckless disregard of his or her obligations and duties.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

This year, a number of brokers with account holders who are Gladstone Commercial Corporation stockholders will be "householding" our proxy materials. A single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that they will be "householding" communications to your address, "householding" will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in "householding" and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, please notify your broker, direct your written request to Martin von Rosenberg, Director of Shareholder Relations, at the address set forth on the cover page of this proxy statement or contact Martin von Rosenberg at (703) 286-0775. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request "householding" of their communications should contact their broker.
